NEWS OF THE DAY. THE WAR. From accounts received at one o'clock this morning we conclude that Gen. Meade's army have gained most substantial successes. Both wings have crossed the Rappahannock, driving the Rebels before them, capturing 1,800 prisoners, and a pontoon train, and killing and wounding a large number. Full details sre given in our telegraphic dispatches.

The next fortnight promises to be the most eventful one since the commencement of the War. The success of Meade on the Rappahamock and the capture mand of Gen. C. Stuart, of the two eastern-most posts within Gen. Burnside's lines, with half their garrison, are but slight premonitory symptoms of the gigastia conflict of which the lines of battle will stretch from Chattanooga to Washington and Richmond.

For once there seems likely to be concert of acti etween our different armies, and the auguries here are on the whole decidedly favorable. Burnside is, it is very large armies, but he is fully apprised of this fact and advised as to the measures to be taken to thwart

Gen. Grant's supplies are coming in rapidly and in profusion, and his lines of communication are uninter-rupted. Gen. Bragg's supplies, on the other hand, are must be through a district already foraged by the Union

PUBLIC OPINION IN ENGLAND.

The Rev. Mr. Channing this evening gave to a large andlenea, including members of the Cabinet and Government, the results of his observation as to the re-Markable change in public opinion in England.

He named as the causes, the fidelity of Reight, Colden, Mill, and others, the horoic friendship of the workposition of justice and freedom. It was our doubtful ititude here, and the apparent hopelessness of our utise to the early stages of the Robellien, that led Greet Pritain to adopt the fatal error as to beligerents, but the people of the realm are now with as in heart and scatt-
